

Invenergy

Horseshoe Solar Energy Center

The Horseshoe Solar Energy Center, with a targeted COD in 2021, is a 180 megawatt (MW) solar facility in Livingston and Monroe Counties, NY.

Enough electricity to power 50,000 American homes per year

More than $30 million invested in the local economy over the 35 year life of the project

300 jobs will be supported during construction

3 full-time operations and maintenance staff

Emissions reductions equivalent to 40,000 cars off the road over the project lifetime

Supports local education, emergency & veteran services and environmental stewardship

Using the most up-to-date, innovative technology

180 megawatts of renewable energy

Development Timeline

2018–2020

Development

Activities include solar assessment, environmental studies, interconnection studies, etc.

Q4 2020– Q4 2021

Construction

2021-22

Operation

Invenergy's Grand Ridge Energy Center located in LaSalle County, Illinois.

About Invenergy

Invenergy is America's leading, privately-held developer and operator of sustainable energy solutions.

A U.S. based company that develops, owns and operates clean energy facilities in the Americas, Europe and Asia.

Invenergy has successfully developed more than 135 projects, totaling over 21,700 megawatts, including wind, solar, natural gas power generation and advanced energy storage projects.

Feb 2019